

We aimed to understand their experiences by the development stages we defined earlier with the stakeholders

Exploring

Exploring features and the overall system

Planning

Planning the content you intend to create

Navigating Resources

Finding and navigating resources

Scripting

Building features by using script editor

Placing

Placing and configuring components

Playtesting

Evaluating the content with real users